

Lincoln College's Responsible Investment Policy

The College and its securities investment manager integrate environmental, social and governance issues into its investment decision-making. The College believes that well-run companies which promote sustainable, environmental, social and governance policies will ultimately deliver above average long-term returns to their investors and therefore considers this approach to be consistent with maximising its long-term investment performance.